ORANGE COUNTY COURT.

Summary of Work Done at a Very Brief Term.

The December term of Orange county court was adjourned Friday afternoon, December 17, after eleven days of work, during which many more cases were disposed of than is usual in the same length of time, although not so many cases went to trial as in the usual custom.
There was but one civil case tried by jury, and in this case they were unable to agree upon a verdict. There were twenty criminal cases upon the docket, one of which was not proessed, two ordered not to be brought forward, two were continued, five respondents pleaded guilty and two put themselves upon the county for trial, the two being the same person, viz. Samuel Bowen of Randolph, who was charged with two unilateral and distinct offenses, one being for selling intoxicating liquor, of which he was not found guilty and was discharged; the other charge against him was blackmail, and in this case the jury found him guilty and the court imposed a fine of $250 with an alternative sentence in the house of correction at Rutland. To this judgment the respondent excepted and bail was fixed at $500, which he furnished. An interesting fact associated with these two cases is that at the preliminary hearings before the justice of the peace, in the blackmail case, he was discharged, and in the case of selling he was bound over to county court, both findings in the court of first instance being thrown down in county court.

The respondents who pleaded guilty, who were not reported in last week's issue, were Fred Bowen of Bradford, who was charged with selling intoxicating liquor, was sentenced to hard labor in the county jail for a term of not less than eight months nor more than ten months; sentences suspended and respondent placed in custody of the county probation officer.

Reuben Johnson of Thetford pleaded guilty also to selling and paid $308 to settle the bill.
Jerry Sullivan, alias Jerry Smith, alias J. R. East of Middlebury, who pleaded guilty to the crime of horse stealing, having taken a team from George Forbes of Randolph in the spring of 1904, and fleeing into New Hampshire, where he stole another team, for which crime he served five years in the New Hampshire state prison at Concord, was sentenced to a term of not less than three nor more than four years in the state prison at Windsor. The criminal work being abated, the jury was dismissed, having been in attendance eight days.

The nineteen civil cases set for trial by the court were disposed of as follows: Eight were continued, five were settled, two were entered with the court without hearing, one was referred to John C. Wing of Montpelier, and two the Stafford Co-operative Telephone Co. vs. D. C. Wheeler of Stratford, and Patterson & Holden of Brookfield, vs. the Sargent, Osgood and Roundy company of Randolph were heard and entered with the court for judgment.
Eleven other civil cases of the general docket, which were not set for trial, were entered, settled and discontinued.

The divorce docket contained twenty-six cases, nine of which were heard, with the result that eight bills were granted, fourteen were continued and four were discontinued, two of which were counter petitions, the husband and wife each bringing a libel for divorce.
Bills were granted in the following cases:

Carl M. Hicks vs. John R. Hicks, bill granted for intolerable severity and custody of minor child decreed to petitioner.

Raymond W. Trainer of White River Junction was attorney for the petitioner.

Lotie F. Hyzer Meers vs. Byron Meers, bill granted for adultery. L. D.
Latham of Milton, attorney for petitioner.

Mary E. Royce vs. Edward Royce, bill granted for refusal to support and custody of minor child decreed to petitioner. Darling & Wilson of Chelsea, attorneys for petitioner.

Amanda Hood vs. Rufus N. Hood, bill granted for intolerable severity. Samuel A. Noon of Boston, attorney for petitioner.

Harriet A. Smead vs. Clinton D.
Smead, bill granted for intolerable severity, and petitioner granted leave to resume her former name of Christopher.
Albany as per stipulations on file. M.
M. Wilson of Randolph, attorney for petitioner.

Clymen M. Hosmer vs. Josiah D. Hos-mer, bill granted for refusal to support.
F. S. Williams of Bradford, attorney for petitioner.

There were no chancery hearings but in several cases an entry of settled and discontinued was directed and made.

Eddie L. Hall of Corinth, who at the June term of court the present year was adjudged in contempt of court, by reason of not having complied fully with an order of court in 1907 regarding certain articles of personal property, which were ordered to be turned over to his wife, who had obtained a divorce from him and who in vacation had been arrested and was admitted to bail, presented himself in court and was adjudged to be allowed to purge himself of contempt, and it was ordered, that upon delivery of certain property stipulated in the original order for alimony, or in lieu thereof the payment of $50 within thirty days together with costs of the contempt proceedings, he be purged of contempt.

Sheriff Baldwin committed William V.
Morse to the house of correction at Rutland Tuesday and Jerry Race to the state prison at Windsor Friday.

This is the third term that Judge Waterman has presided over in this county and he always more than sustains the reputation he made here during his first term. He left for his home Friday morning and Judge Morse in the afternoon.
Judge White, who was ill the last two days of the term, is able to attend business again and will remain in town for a few days to attend to some county business.

ABOUT THE STATE

Harry Robbins of Derby was kicked by a colt last week, breaking a rib and bruising him badly.

Joseph Morse of Bristol dislocated one hip last week by falling on the ice.
He is over 80 years of age.

Mrs. Frank Shacklet and seven children of Richmond entered the poor house in North Bakersfield last week.

The largest automobile deal ever transacted in Newport was carried through recently when six different people each purchased a $2250 Rambler, amounting to $13,500 for the machines.

Frank Hart, sr., of East Enosburg, who is 77 years of age, is ill with blood poisoning in one foot and his condition is very critical. The amputation of his foot seems to be the only chance for his recovery.

Much anxiety is felt for the safety of Henry M. Whitney of Bellows Falls, who mysteriously disappeared last week Monday. He was employed by the American Express company there and was treasurer of one of the leading clubs.

Mrs. Percy Bean of Newport, while eating her breakfast one morning last week, felt like yawning, which she did, throwing her jaw out of joint. A physician was called, who set her jaw, and she was able to close her mouth after a while.

A quantity of goods in the mill of H.
E. Bradford & Co., Bennington, were badly damaged by water Friday, when there was a slight fire. The blaze was probably caused by spontaneous combustion.
Some damage was done in the ending room, where the fire originated.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McFarlane of Greenboro Bend, aged respectively 80 and 83 years, celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage November 19. They have lived on their present farm ever since they were married. In the old days of the Montpelier-Newport stage line they ran a hotel.

The branch garment factory of the Willard Manufacturing Co. of St. Albans, which has located in the building formerly occupied by the Atwood Suspenders Co. in Swanton, has begun operations with about a dozen operators, which will be increased in number if the business demands it.

Daniel Willard, who has just been tendered the presidency of the B. & O. railroad, is a Hartland boy. In his youth he worked on a farm, graduating to the railroad service as a track laborer and passing from grade to grade by force of ability until he became secretary and vice-president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road, which position he still holds. Mr. Willard's mother lives at Hartland and is frequently visited by her son, who has done much for her comfort in declining years.

Forty-eight years ago the Hon. Joseph Dubois, who retired last month as chief justice of Manitoba, attended school in Shelburne, Ont. R. J. White being his teacher. A brother, John B. still lives in that town and three other brothers, Isaac, Alphonse and Everett, reside in Winnipeg. Mr. Dubois' 30 years' service on the Canadian bench is unparalleled in length. He graduated from McGill university with high honors in 1860 and, after practicing law for a few years in Montreal and Quebec, located in Winnipeg. He was a member of the first legislature of Manitoba.
While campaigning for a personal friend in 1878 he was assaulted from behind and left for dead by a gang of political opponents. In 1879 he was elected speaker of the legislature and for the following three years acted as sworn counsel for the province. In 1879 he was sent to the Dominion House of Commons and that same year was elected to the Queen's bench for Manitoba.

Church in Trouble Over Snow.

A peculiar situation exists in Bratteboro, where the Center Congregational church is trying to dispose of the snow which is piled up on the roof of the church roof this winter. Years ago, when the land on which the building now stands was bought, it belonged to the Goodhue estate, the owners of which were prominent Congregationalists. The deed stated that the church could be built so near the line that the snow and drifts from the roof could fall on the Goodhue property, and a driveway, one edge of which comes under the eaves was also laid out, made of concrete, for use when necessary.

Later, the property next the church changed hands, but its owners were still Congregationalists, and the trustees agreed to pay $250 to Herrick, and after his death, his wife, the sum of $100 yearly for the privilege of using the driveway and allowing the snow to slide off. Now the place has again been sold, this time to a niece of Mrs. Herrick, who not only will not allow the snow to fall on her land, but will not permit the driveway to be used, and all wood and coal will have to be carried across the church lawn. The church, at one time, tried the plan of putting a snow guard on the eaves, but the water set back and ruined the interior decorations, after which it was removed. Miss Miller, the new owner, now insists that the guard be put on again. The question is what rights were conferred by the original deed.

ESTATE OF DAVID BOLES.

STATE OF VERMONT. The Honorable District of Washington, Probate Court for the District of Washington: To all persons interested in the estate of David Boles, late of the Town of Berlin in said District deceased, Greeting:

At the Probate Court, holden at Montpelier, Vermont, and for said District on the 20th day of November, 1909, the instrument purporting to be the last Will and Testament of David Boles, late of the Town of Berlin in said District, deceased, was presented to the Court aforesaid, for Probate.

It is ordered by said Court that the 23rd day of December, 1909, at the Probate Office in said Montpelier, be assigned for proving and instrument; and that notice thereof be given to all persons concerned, by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper circulating in that vicinity, in said District, previous to the time appointed.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court at the time and place aforesaid, and contest the probate of said will, if you have cause.

Given under my hand at Montpelier, in said District, this 20th day of November, 1909.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that is "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which are the life of the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are justly at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Hairdope to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to flourish.

Sold by leading druggists. Send the in-stamps for sample to The Hairdope Co., Detroit.
